

DEFIBRILLATION RECOVERY POSITION

Should your casualty recover, place them in the recovery position with the pads remained fixed to their chest and connected to the AED

Monitor the casualty to ensure they continue to breathe normally for themselves.

Be prepared to restart the process should they stop breathing normally again Defibrillation